

Introduction (Focus & aim of review, audience) – 100 words

Outline on the importance of cyber tools in transportation systems in general (why is there a need for review / why is it significant) – 200 words

Methodology (How did I locate and select sources, structure of review) – 200 words overview of current knowledge on the chosen topic utilizing relevant & current literature – 1000 words

Findings highlighting similar and contrasting views on the chosen topic (main findings in the literature, main strengths and limitation of the literature, discrepancies in the literature) – 400 words

Conclusion (conclusion, action to be done) – 100 words